The Student Press Club's Annual Pageant is the culminating event of the MISS TEXAS HIGH Contest.

The contest is held annually to give appropriate attention to the many attractive and talented girls in the predominately Negro High Schools in Texas — to encourage the development of poise, personality and talent among students — and to promote aesthetic appreciation and cultural growth.

In addition, the Contest provides opportunities for leadership and participation of Press Club members who have exhibited an interest in publications and promotional activities.

Several friends of the college give invaluable aid to the project by furnishing scholarships, prizes and awards to the contestants. Names of these friends are listed throughout this program as specific donors of awards and as contributors through advertising space. Many of the activities are broadcast over Radio Station KYOK-Houston.
